LSU High Voltage Concert

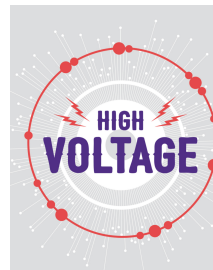

Friday, March 8, 2019
Location: LSU Digital Media Center Theatre
Time: 7:30 PM

Free and open to the public.

The LSU Experimental Music & Digital Media (EMDM) group invite you to their HIGH VOLTAGE CONCERT on Friday, March 8, 2019 (7:30 PM).

The EMDM High Voltage Concert is the venue where the experimental reigns and anything can become music. The 2019 incarnation is coalescing around a theme of transmission & communication with pieces for cyber-hacked discman, a networked computer game of telephone, listening and learning machines, live electronics performance and more.

Works by Jesse Allison, Edgar Berdahl, Landon Viator, Chase Mitchusson, William Thompson, Anthony Marasco, and Margaret Schedel.
