Animation festival screens Pixar's "Brave"

(Source: Red River Radio)

The U.S.'s largest animation festival gets under way in Baton Rouge. The Red Stick International Animation Festival includes a juried competition of animation works submitted from 30 countries. On Sunday, the festival features a 2 p.m. pre-screening of Pixar's forthcoming film, "Brave." All events are held at the Manship Theatre and Shaw Center for the Arts.

Listen to the interview with the Director of the Red Stick Fest, Stephen David Beck, here.
